Galveston Beach

6285 Seawall Blvd

161 locals recommend

The natural beauty of Galveston beaches will fill you with calmness that only nature can! It happens to be FREE which adds to the calmness lol!

The natural beauty of the Gulf of Mexico awaits! Miles of beaches that change names as you go! The closest to this location is Galveston beach which has easy access to groceries, stores as well as food!

The Strand

The Strand

58 locals recommend

The Strand is Galveston's historic district with lots of places to eat and shop! Enjoy the Harbor/Bayside, dolphin cruises, jet boat thrill rides, Oil drilling museum and viewing massive cruise boats at the port!

Galveston - Bolivar Ferry

Galveston - Bolivar Ferry

35 locals recommend

The Port Bolivar Ferry is a free ferry ride for you and your vehicle! (TX Dept of Transportation)!

The most amazing part is it has dolphins that you will see when traveling to Bolivar. Once the ferry leaves you are free to move about and take in the beauty! You will see Dolphins as well as Pelican Island! Once arriving at Bolivar drop off- you can drive around until the next ferry leaves back to Galveston (about every 20 minutes or so)!

Seawolf Park

100 Seawolf Park Boulevard

74 locals recommend

This park is surrounded by water! You will see as if fisherman who are there all day long! It is located on Pelican Island (and yes-it is also close)! Parking is per vehicle at the park and once you leave you have to pay to come back in (IDK why they do that) so bring a packed lunch, go through the Navel Museum-and make a time of it!

Galveston Naval Museum

100 Seawolf Park Blvd

26 locals recommend

Fun look on an actual submarine-great history and experience of walking this massive vehicle!

Moody Mansion

2618 Broadway Avenue J

180 locals recommend

The Moody family have been around a long time as you will notice street names, banks, Moody Garden...the list is long! This historic building is where the Moody's grew up. There is a self guided tour (no reservation needed) so get your cell phones ready as well as an exclusive two hour all access guided tour (reservation only)

What a fun filled day you will have here! The aquarium and the rainforest exhibits are truly a fun scene!

During the winter holiday season the light display is mind boggling and is a must see!!!

Bishops Palace

1402 Broadway Avenue J

228 locals recommend

This historic building is a place to witness architect and design that also withstood the Storm of 1900!

Colonel Paddlewheel Boat

1 Hope Blvd

7 locals recommend

This is a fun experience!

Food scene

This is a great place to enjoy the Harbor! You can also see dolphins when sitting outside on the deck area! Inside there is a bar and dining areas! A popular drink is Pier 22-it's a pretty drink! They have a wide assortment of hard liquors as well! You will get your parking validated when drinking/eating here when parking out in front of this location!

Do you have gluten sensitivities? Kate's makes their own gluten free spices! You can purchase some there to take with you as well! Just let them know your allergy preferences and they work hard to help you enjoy your stay :)

Yummy foods with active boats parked in the back side!

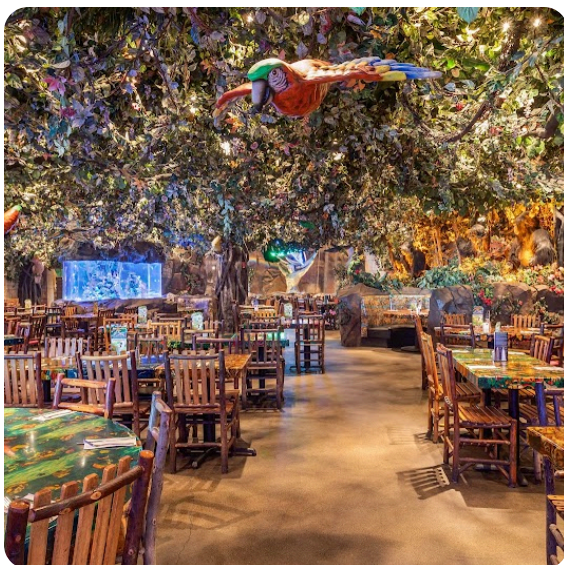

Grotto Ristorante

5222 Seawall Blvd

29 locals recommend

This is located in the very beautiful San Luis Resort! The Italian cooking and the wine is very good! A little on the pricey side but when dining as a couple would be worth the experience!

Rainforest Cafe

5310 Seawall Blvd

105 locals recommend

Have kids? This is a fun place to go! The outside atmosphere usually has music and the top of the restaurant blows out fire in the evening times! Sure-other cities have it-but this one is across from the Sea which makes it convenient to continue with your day! Kids love it!
